Destinations Welcoming Travelers Once Again

With the world slowly reemerging and more and more destinations welcoming travelers once again, we can begin to see a light at the end of this long tunnel. We are thrilled to share that several of our Rebecca Recommends hotels and destination partners are open and with no arrival quarantine. They are ready to embrace your clients who are itching to dust off their suitcases and are ready to travel.

We encourage you to contact us or our clients for specific protocols and requirements for entry to each destination. Each Rebecca Recommends client has COVID-safe protocols in place, so travelers can rest assured they'll have a healthy, relaxing experience.

Without further adieu, here's what's open!

Open Now

Curtain Bluff - Antigua: For those seeking sea, sun and sand, Curtain Bluff offers a true departure from the everyday. This divine oceanfront retreat offers all-inclusive value with exquisite island resort luxury. Open-air massages, abundant water sports, tennis and elegantly appointed signature suites await relaxation-seeking guests.

Beyond Times Square - United States: Rediscover favorite cities like a local with the carefully curated, immersive urban experiences by Beyond Times Square. Choose from New York City, Boston, Washington, D.C. and more, as well as exclusive add-ons to popular areas like the Hudson Valley, Finger Lakes, Cape Cod, and incredible off-the-beaten-path locations in the wider New York state.

Resplendent Ceylon Properties - Sri Lanka: In magical Sri Lanka, guests may stay on a colonial-era tea plantation within the scenic Ceylon tea gardens. They can choose to hide away in cocoon-style accommodations on the edge of a white-sand beach next to Yala National Park or enjoy incredible sunset ocean views cliffside at Cape Weligama. Or, combine all three for the best of Sri Lanka!

Ventours International - The Maldives, Nepal, Sri Lanka: Give your clients the gift of choice: the beautiful coral atolls and blue lagoons of the Maldives, the soaring peaks and friendly villages of Nepal, or the serene landscapes and seascapes of Sri Lanka. Ventours has the insider connections and accommodations to make any choice the right one, introducing curious travelers to the marvels of each region, working closely with local experts to unlock the sounds and colors, chaos, peace, hidden wonders, and the legendary cultures of each destination.

Dwarika's Hotel & Dwarika's Resort - Nepal: There's no better time to check off a bucket-list travel destination, so arrange the trip of a lifetime to Nepal for your adventurous clients. Combine the family hospitality of The Dwarika's Hotel in Kathmandu with the whole-body experience at Dwarika's Resort in Dhulikhel, with the Himalayas as an exquisite backdrop.

Sea Song - Turkey: Introduce your clients to Turkey, from a private yacht cruise on the Bosphorus, to a private shopping tour of the Grand Bazaar, to an exclusive visit to an Ottoman mansion with a local art expert. These customized journeys elevate the Turkey experience for those seeking something new.

Opening Soon - Expected May 2021

TRAVEX - Israel, Jordan: Expand your clients' horizons with the Israel and Jordan experiences available soon through TRAVEX. This family-owned, well-established and trusted company offers expertise of the destination and customized experiences, from wine tastings in Golan Heights to explorations of ancient Petra.

Curated Greece - Greece: For culture, cuisine, beauty and history, send your clients to Greece. From cooking lessons in local homes to diving in the Mediterranean to sailing on the Aegean, Curated Greece can't wait to craft your clients' personally tailored trip, infused with exclusive, authentic activities planned by local experts.

Anticipated for June/July

Keep in touch for more openings in June and July, including our collection of hotels in the United Kingdom.

With fondest wishes,

Rebecca
