Rebecca Recommends Welcomes Dream Escape - United Kingdom and Ireland

Dear Friends,

Fantastic news - the UK and Ireland are expecting an uptick in travel this summer. While this is wonderful news for the travel industry, it means that there will be (and is already) limited availability in these regions. At this time, there is still some availability for the summer season in London, but availability at other Rebecca Recommends properties throughout these countries is very limited. If at all possible, we recommend asking your clients to consider trips into the fall and next spring for the best experience possible.

And now ... we present even better news: Our new partnership with Dream Escape. Known for providing the very highest caliber of trips for the ultra-luxe set in England, Wales and Ireland, Dream Escape upholds an incredibly high standard. Their

- Explore “Magical London” with trips to the real-life “Diagon Alley,” and London’s oldest bookshop, which specializes in mysticism and the occult. Finish the tour with a live magic show.
- Assisted by a personal videographer, capture some of the city's most iconic landmarks as the children become both actor and director. The finished product - with a few added surprise effects - is a great memento.
- Join a mission with an MI5 spy - blast along the River Thames on a RIB and follow clues to solve the mystery and stop the villain.

With their passion for sharing the finer experiences in life, impeccable personal service and the ultimate in luxury travel connections, Dream Escape is the key to long-dreamt-of, indulgent experiences in England, Ireland and Wales. We look forward to connecting you and hearing what you create for your clients.

Fondly,

Rebecca
