Rebecca Recommends Welcomes Meadowood Napa Valley

Dear Friends,

We are so overjoyed to be collaborating and partnering with the exquisite Meadowood Napa Valley, what we feel is one of the finest family-owned properties in the United States today. The legacy of the Harlan family shines through in every aspect of this soulful, intimate property. The general ambiance is more open than a family estate, yet more private than a resort - and the result is perfection.

Meadood has reemerged after the region's devastating wildfire. Guests eager to enjoy the delights of St. Helena and the entire valley are returning to Meadowood's 36 graciously appointed suites and guest rooms, Forbes Five-Star all-suite spa, incredible new Wine Center, three distinct pools, and active programming including lessons on the five tennis courts and acres and acres of hiking trails.

Here is what we love and why we know your clients will adore Meadowood, too.

Fondly,

Rebecca

Inviting Accommodations

At once understated and elegant, Meadowood's 36 suites and guest rooms fully immerse one in the Napa Valley lifestyle. Each is uniquely furnished for privacy and relaxation both indoors and out, with rustic yet refined accents in true wine country style.

Accommodation options include the spacious one-bedroom 'Hill House' retreat on the wooded hillside next to The Spa at Meadowood, complete with a private outdoor lounging deck with a fire pit, soaking tub and outdoor shower - what could be more perfect?

Other delightful choices include the airy, sunny Treeline Suites near the pool area; the open-floor plan Oakview Rooms with wood-burning fireplaces and vaulted ceilings; the quiet, secluded Treetop rooms with wrap-around windows framing foliage and hillside views; and the light-drenched Cottage Rooms with French doors leading out to large, enclosed terraces for outdoor lounging year-round.

A Sublime Spa

Whether a day unto itself or a few hours of repose after exploring Napa Valley, the slower pace of The Spa at Meadowood is a welcome respite. This is where equilibrium is restored, and spirits are reenergized.

The all-suite concept provides the ultimate privacy for each guest, elevating their treatment experience. Grounding, earth-based therapies include hot- and cold-stone massage with a black-walnut scrub, while garden-based treatments using essential oils and herbs reflect the season. From organic botanical wraps to a rosemary and mint foot scrub, the spa menu celebrates Napa Valley's natural landscape and imparts a strong sense of place.

Decadent, Locally Inspired Dining

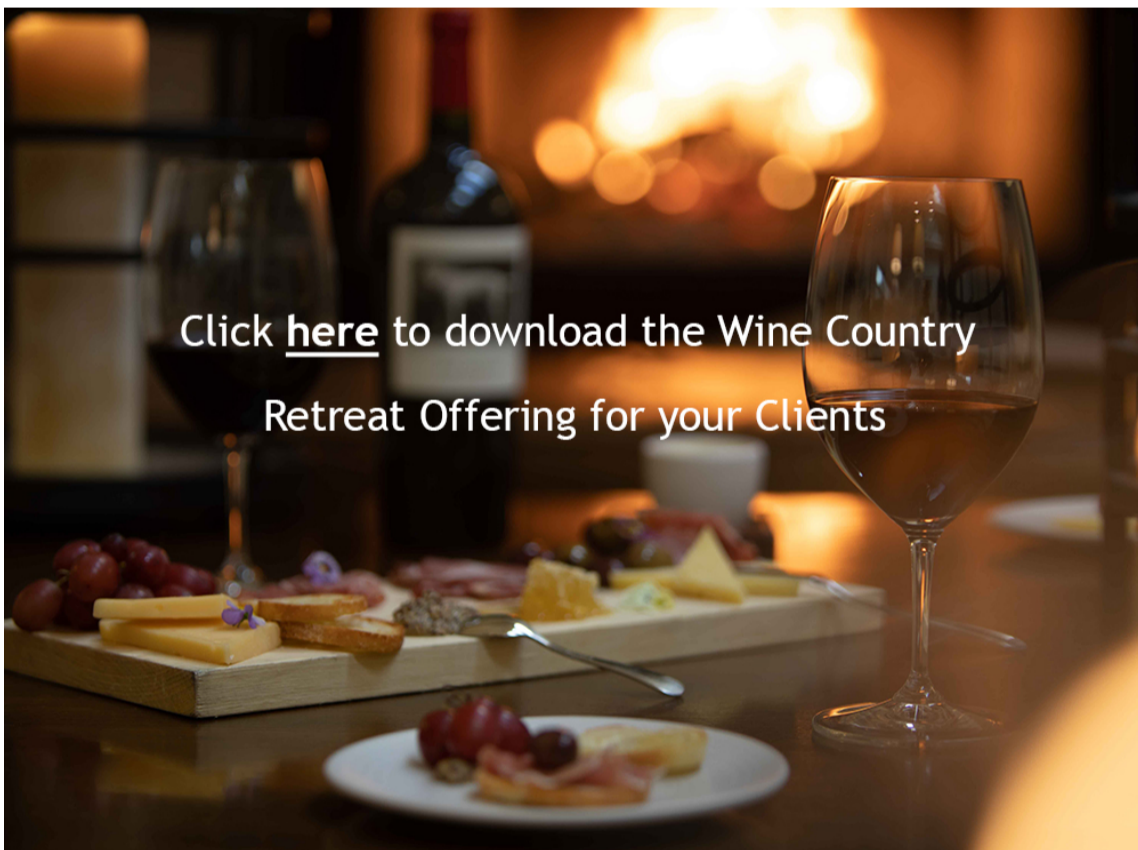

As the seasons turn, so do culinary options at Meadowood. Menus honor the exceptional local bounty of Napa Valley and nearby, paying homage to the area's remarkable agricultural heritage. A new all-day dining room and bar offers seating indoors and out. Choose a handcrafted cocktail or coveted wine, then delight in a seasonally inspired meal or even your favorite snacks and treats. A 12-person private dining room is available for an intimate event or celebration.

The Best of Napa Valley

Of course, one must explore Napa Valley when staying at Meadowood and its prime location makes it easy to do so. You are invited to engage, play, and recharge in whatever manner suits you, whether through recreation or relaxation.

On property, guests have exclusive access to The Wine Center, where you may learn about all aspects of wine appreciation and the nuances of winemaking in Napa Valley and beyond. Additionally, The Wine Center can arrange a curated winery tour, whether you would like to dive deep into a specific appellation or visit new-to-you estates. Meadowood wine experts will discuss your interests with you and present you with a personalized list of wineries best suited to your tastes. Excursions include driver and winery fees.

The estate itself offers three swimming pools, including the fitness pool, family activities pool, and adults-only cabana pool. In addition to a fully equipped fitness center, Meadowood offers five immaculately maintained outdoor tennis courts, as well as two dedicated tennis pros.

We invite you to get to know Meadowood Napa Valley, a luxurious gathering place for Napa Valley visitors seeking a refined, relaxed experience in one of the world's most sought-after destinations. Please reach out if we can answer any questions or connect you with the team at the property.
