DAY II - DISCOVERING MURANO & BURANO ISLANDS

We meet your private local guide at 9.00 am at your hotel and together you will enjoy an unforgettable day dedicated to discover the main islands in the lagoon of Venice.

After reaching your private boat dock, you will start a fascinating journey through the main islands in the lagoon of Venice.

First stop will be Murano, the Island of Master Glassblowers.

This island is world-famous for its historic tradition of glassmaking: since the 13th century, glass production in Venice has been concentrated on this island, and the highly specialized techniques have been passed down through generations of artisans.

Here you will participate at a unique glass-blowing demo in a glass factory, and you will have the opportunity to watch live glassmakers at work, observing the mesmerizing art of glassblowing firsthand.

Murano is a testament to an enduring, high-quality Italian craft, making it a perfect stop for those interested in art, history, and exclusive experience.

Afterwards, always with your private guide and boat, you will move to Burano, the Island of Lace and Color.

Legend has it that the fishermen painted their houses in bright colors so they could find their way home through the thick lagoon fog.

Besides its color, Burano is also famous for the Art of Lacemaking; for centuries, it has been globally renowned for its exquisite, handmade needle lace. In Burano you will have a brehtaking walk through its brightly colored homes, and you will stop by an amazing lace-making store.

Once the visit is over, you will have some free time to eat and enjoy the island (about 2 hours). We can provide you a restaurant reservation if you wish. Indeed, Burano also offers charming, narrow streets, a unique leaning bell tower, and excellent opportunities to enjoy fresh, local seafood.

After lunch, you will move to the third little island for an unexpected visit to a truly evocative and fascinating place, which was once the commercial capital of Venice, wrapped in a mysterious atmosphere perhaps due to the fact that there are no houses or streets, only canals and vast uncultivated areas and that today has only 13 residents.

You will be back to the Venice around 5 pm and your private local guide will take you back to your Hotel.

- The tour includes a private historical guide at your disposal for the whole time for an exclusive and personalized experience, private boat, entrances and demos.
